ABORIGINAL ARTIST DATABASE RELEASE FORM

At VANOC, we are committed to showcasing and sharing extraordinary talent with our community. In keeping with this commitment, we have created an Artist Registry that will give us the opportunity to stay informed and in touch with diverse artists from across Canada and abroad. By signing this form you will be entered into our Aboriginal Artist Database,

The Aboriginal Artist Database is a centralized database that members and affiliates of VANOC can reference when programming events. We may eventually share this legacy with our partners, supporters, affiliates, sponsors, and others involved in the Olympic Movement (encompasses organizations, athletes, and other persons who agree to be guided by the Olympic Charter) as well as other arts and cultural organizations.

Aboriginal Artist Database Privacy Policy (describes VANOC's practices for the collection, use, and disclosure of personal information)

Your privacy is important to VANOC. That is why we want you to be informed about how we protect the privacy of Applicants. By agreeing to participate in the Aboriginal Artist Database, you agree that your personal information may be used to:

- Confirm your identity
- Facilitate discussions with you regarding your application, its posting on the Aboriginal Artist Database, and about possible engagements with VANOC and/or VANOC affiliates
- Assess the suitability of your proposal for VANOC and VANOC related events
- Assess the suitability of your proposal for sponsor, supporter, supplier and other affiliated events
- In respect of providing access to the Aboriginal Artist database to third parties for legacy purposes, assess the suitability by such third parties of your proposal for future, non-VANOC related events
- Otherwise carry out the planning, staging and administration of our programs requiring access to the Aboriginal Artist Database

By submitting an application, you agree that your personal information may be disclosed to:

- VANOC affiliates, including affiliates in or from other countries including, but not limited to, the International Olympic Committee, any person, organization or institution recognized by the International Olympic Committee or belonging in any capacity to the Olympic Movement (International Federations, National Olympic Committees, athletes etc) who may wish to source talent for an upcoming event.
- Current and future sponsors, supporters, suppliers of the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games who may wish to acquire talent for an event.
- Arts and cultural organizations that may benefit, as determined by VANOC, in acquiring the database as part of a lasting legacy.
- Those with whom we may, from time to time, contract to carry out the internal operations of this website.
- To the extent permitted by law, we may also collect, use, and disclose personal information in connection with security-related or law enforcement investigations or in the course of cooperation with authorities or complying with legal requirements.

Security

We take steps to maintain the security of your personal information and to prevent unauthorized access to it by those who do not have a legitimate need for it. We will only disclose your personal information as contemplated herein or if we otherwise obtain your consent.
